Bylaws of the Undergraduate Academic Affairs Committee  Committee

Policy #: TBD
Effective Date: July 1, 2024
Version #: 3.0
Responsible University Official(s): Provost, Academic Affairs

1.0 PURPOSE

This policy updates and codifies the bylaws of the Undergraduate Academic Affairs Committee (UAAC).

2.0 COMMITTEE DEFINITION & RESPONSIBILITIES

The University-wide governance body for undergraduate education is the Undergraduate Academic Affairs Committee (UAAC). UAAC serves a shared governance role in the development, improvement, and quality control of undergraduate education throughout the University. It operates in the context of the University's commitment to the Jesuit ideal of educating "the whole person"; its functions and membership are established accordingly.

UAAC is the principal advisory body to the Provost and the Council of Academic Deans and Directors (CADD) related to undergraduate education throughout the University. As such, UAAC reviews and makes recommendations to the above-mentioned regarding:

- proposals for new undergraduate academic programs (degrees, majors, minors, certificates, and micro-credentials); in doing so UAAC serves as the University-wide undergraduate curriculum committee.
- proposals for significant revisions to existing undergraduate academic programs are to be evaluated by the governing dean (or dean's representative) and in consultation with the Associate Provost of Undergraduate Education to determine if the revisions warrant University-level curriculum approval
- policies affecting undergraduate education (including but not limited to those implemented in/by the Offices of Admission, the Registrar, Student Financial Services, Information Technology Services, and Student Development; e.g. Latin honors, admission requirements, scholarship requirements, etc.)
- related co-curricular programming (including but not limited to: academic advising, mentoring, learning communities, tutoring, academic support programs, and other initiatives integrating/bridging academic affairs and student affairs)

All proposals to create/implement new academic programs, policies, and initiatives (as described above) must be submitted to UAAC for its recommendation to the governing deans/directors, vice president(s) and Provost.

All proposals to create or change University-wide academic policies, requirements, or related co-curricular programming (as described above) must be submitted to UAAC for its recommendation to the governing deans/directors, vice president(s) and Provost for approval and/or recommendation to the Board of Trustees.

Any UAAC proposals not recommended for approval may be revised and re-submitted to UAAC for approval, and/or be appealed directly to the Provost for approval.

Via a standing agenda item on the CADD meeting agenda, all UAAC proposals, deliberations and formal actions will be shared regularly at CADD meetings for discussion and recommendation to both UAAC and the Provost Office.
3.0 MEMBERSHIP

UAAC shall be comprised of faculty, administrators and student members either designated permanently by virtue of their position (ex-officio) or elected/appointed for defined terms as representatives of particular constituencies. The committee will be chaired by the Associate Provost of Undergraduate Education. The table below details the attributes of the committee members:

Permanent committee members may commission a designee(s) to participate fully (including voting) in the committee member's absence (e.g., a dean may commission a dean's designee to attend regularly in their place). Absence from three consecutive meetings from UAAC meetings without securing an alternate may be grounds for removal of that member from UAAC. Absence from three consecutive UAAC subcommittee meetings without securing an alternate may be grounds for removal of that member from UAAC. Removal will be the decision of the UAAC committee and requires a two-thirds vote. Additionally, with the UAAC chair's approval any UAAC members may invite other faculty, staff, or students to attend committee meetings as non-voting consultants to offer expertise as needed.

The elected/appointed faculty members of UAAC are elected for staggered three-year terms such that at least three new members will be appointed each year (initial terms for some members will necessarily be shorter to achieve this distribution). The annual term of office shall be September 1 through August 31. Elected members may be re-elected for a second consecutive three-year term, but in no case for more than a cumulative total of six years for each unique role they serve on campus (e.g. faculty senate representative, faculty representative, etc.).

The SGA Rep term of membership shall last for a period of one year. Terms shall be from September 1 through August 31. A student may be re-elected but may not be elected to more than three one-year terms.

The Staff Assistant of the Office of the Associate Provost for Undergraduate Education will serve in a nonmember role as the official UAAC Secretary.

4.0 VOTING RIGHTS &PROCEDURES

Agenda items may be proposed to the Associate Provost for Academic Affairs by any regular voting member of UAAC or member of the Saint Louis University faculty, staff, or student body. In the case of absence, the Associate Provost for Undergraduate Education may designate any member of UAAC to preside at the meeting.

All committee members have the right to participate fully in discussions of all motions. In all instances, the committee chair only votes in the case of a tie. Only committee members with official University faculty appointments and the Dean for University Libraries are allowed to vote on motions regarding new or significantly revised academic programs; all committee members are allowed to vote on all other motions.

For voting purposes, a quorum shall consist of a simple majority (51\%) of all members eligible to vote on a particular motion. Assuming a quorum, a simple majority of votes is required to pass any motion (except motions to amend these Bylaws, which require a two-thirds super majority as detailed in Section 6.0 below). Votes by email will be permitted if time and circumstances require it.

Voting procedures will be conducted according to the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised.
5.0 MEETINGS

UAAC will regularly meet once each month from September through May each academic year. Additional meetings may be called as needed by the UAAC Chair. Meetings conducted primarily or exclusively via synchronous or asynchronous electronic communication may be held in special circumstances as deemed necessary by the UAAC Chair. Meetings will otherwise be conducted according to the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised.

The UAAC Faculty Sub-committee is a permanent sub-committee comprised of all faculty members of UAAC. This group will meet as needed and outside of the full committee meetings to deliberate and vote upon academic program proposals. Results of voting will be communicated at the next full UAAC meeting.

UAAC may establish additional ad-hoc and/or permanent sub-committees to conduct various aspects of committee work.

Members of UAAC are responsible for conveying information reviewed, discussed and/or approved in a UAAC meeting back to their respective units. Such responsibility shall be viewed as a two-way flow of information.

6.0 AMENDMENTS

Proposed amendments to these Bylaws shall be submitted to the UAAC Chair in writing two weeks before the next regularly scheduled meeting and will be forwarded by the Chair to all members at least one week prior to the next regularly scheduled meeting. Amendments approved by two-thirds of the voting members of UAAC will be forwarded to the Provost for review and approval.
