 - The YWCA of Metro St. Louis provides crisis services and operates a 24 hour hotline at: 314.531.7273. They may dispatch an advocate to assist you in contacting police or obtaining immediate medical treatment.

- INVESTIGATION, REVIEW, AND RESOLUTION
 - You may make a report with the University, the police, or both entities. The University, once notified of a complaint, will investigate your complaint in a prompt, thorough, and impartial manner while offering support services for any party involved.
 - You may choose to utilize support services at the time you report or at any point in the future. Even if you choose not to pursue a formal investigation, University staff will work with you to make sure you receive support and services as needed and/or requested.
 - After an investigation, matters of sexual misconduct between students are adjudicated in collaboration with the Office of Student Responsibility and Community Standards. Possible sanctions for students found responsible for sexual misconduct include restriction of access, University probation, suspension, or expulsion.

- Student on student reports are investigated by the Office of Institutional Equity and Diversity. Accommodations and adjudication are performed in collaboration with the Dean of Students Office and the Office of Student Responsibility and Community Standards. Where the accused party is an employee, the employee and faculty processes will be utilized.
- All findings are made using the 'preponderance of the evidence' standard, meaning 'is it more likely than not' that an incident occurred. The University process is separate from a legal process.
- The Dean of Students Office (314.977.9378) can assist with academic and housing accommodations, referrals to student health/counseling/ministry as well as student conduct matters.
