

Alexandra Romanyshyn
Graduate Student Excellence in the Philosophy Department

My research lies primarily in philosophy of mind and moral psychology. My dissertation explores the connection between the self and mental illness, particularly schizophrenia. When I am not doing philosophy, I like to spend my time baking, doing ballet, and playing the piano