

Haicheng Zhao
Graduate Student Excellence in the Philosophy Department

Haicheng Zhao is a fourth year graduate student from the department of philosophy. His research interests include epistemology (safety&sensitivity, virtue epistemology, etc.) and philosophy of mind (e.g. mental causation, causal exclusion, nature of hope). Recently, he defended his dissertation titled "Better Virtuous Than Safe," directed by Professor John Greco.