

SAINT LOUIS UNIVERSITY
—
SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

The rigor and relevance
you would expect from a SLU degree!

SLU's New Online Master of Arts in Educational Leadership Program

The best of both worlds: a Saint Louis University degree can now be pursued from anywhere! Saint Louis University is now offering its esteemed Master of Arts in Educational Leadership degree through an online program. Each semester, each class balances "in person" synchronous classes via Zoom with convenient asynchronous learning via Canvas, our electronic learning management system.

Flexible!

Scan for more information!

Convenient!

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Whether your goal is to become a principal, teacher leader, leader of industry or of a non-profit organization, SLU's M.A. in Educational Leadership program will allow you to:

- Pursue excellence in leadership through an emphasis on imperative social justice issues, practical leadership training, and student-centric pedagogy.
- Be part of a collaborative, cohort-based learning community and a member of a powerful professional network of alumni upon graduation.
- Work with expert, experienced faculty dedicated to helping students connect theory to practice.
- Be eligible, upon completion of the program, to apply for Missouri Initial Principal Certification and take the next step in your career!

Saint Louis University to a more flexible program that meets the needs of our students. Join us in this inaugural year, which promises to be an outstanding experience for educators wanting to broaden their knowledge and practice in educational leadership." - Donna Jahnke, Ph.D.

SAINT LOUIS UNIVERSITY
—
SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

Master of Arts, Educational Leadership PROGRAM FORMAT

- 32-credit hours offer an integrated approach to leadership theory, practical application, and research.
- Internship opportunities allow students to experience the realities of school leadership.
- Typical program completion in two years.
- Accelerate or slow your pace as needed.
- Online with a balance of synchronous and asynchronous instruction.
- Includes a 3 day on campus workshop experience in the summer, The Gateway Leadership Institute.
- Current tuition is $620 per credit hour.

Application is free!

FOR MORE INFORMATION, SCAN TO FOLLOW US ON SOCIAL MEDIA OR CONTACT US!

slusoegrad@slu.edu

314-977-3292

"The School of Education's Educational Leadership program prepares students to balance scholarship and practices as they prepare for leadership careers in school districts, non-profit organizations, and other educational settings. The program prepares students to become champions of educational equity and thought leaders grounded in evidence-based research on excellence in leadership." - Karen Hall, Ed.D.

TO APPLY

- Applications are accepted throughout the entire year and students can start at any time.
- Complete an online application at www.slu.edu/admission/graduate.
- Submit official transcripts from your alma mater(s).
- Upload a current resume and one letter of recommendation.
- Complete a professional goal statement that addresses questions in the online application portal.
- No GRE required.

