

Catholic High Schools
at the Crossroads:
How Can School Leaders
Succeed While Collaborating to Address Common Challenges

Sponsored by Saint Louis University School of Education

Saint Louis University
Midtown Campus

OCTOBER
17-18
2024

Click here
to register!

Topics and Speakers

Professor Jean Twenge, a respected researcher, best-selling author, and highly sought-after speaker on teens, youth mental health, i-Gen, and Gen Z will deliver a Keynote

Julie Soffner, President of the Office of Catholic Education and Formation at the Archdiocese of St. Louis, will discuss new strategies for Catholic school leaders to access state funding for tuition

Angela Gunderson, from Meitler, a team of industry-leading experts consistently delivering innovative, data-driven plans for Catholic communities, will discuss innovative tools and strategies for creating an enrollment management plan

Researchers at Saint Louis University will present on Successful Strategies for Educator Recruitment and Retention and Recruitment

Other sessions will focus on What Makes a High Quality Advancement Office? and How do Catholic Schools Appeal to and Serve Today's Students?