

SLU LAW CELEBRATES BLACK HISTORY MONTH

FRIDAY
FEB
19

Virtual Movie Night:

Join SLU LAW at 7 p.m. for a Netflix Party to watch Lee Daniels' The Butler. Beginning February 15, stop by Student Services (Room 1008) to pick up a movie snack pack for the event, or email shannon.morse@slu.edu to have it delivered to your locker (limited snack packs available).

FRIDAY
MARCH
5

In-Person Movie Night:

Join SLU LAW and BLSA at AMC Creve Coeur 12 for a night at the movies. We have rented a private theater to culminate February's numerous events highlighting and celebrating Black history and culture. Public health guidelines must be followed, and limited tickets (20) are available to accommodate social distancing. Tickets are free!

Be on the lookout for the Student Bar Associations Affinity Council Black History Month trivia where you can learn get things about the city of St. Louis and legal legends. "This month, SLU LAW's student organizations celebrate Black History by shining a light on people or events that shaped our lives. At the end of each week there will be a short quiz. Complete the quiz to enter for a chance to win a prize!"

Registration details for all events can be found online at slu.edu/law/events.

COMMUNITY OPPORTUNITIES:

MONDAY
FEB
15

Baker Sterchi's event:

Observe Black History Month with Baker Sterchi at 11:30 a.m. CST as we dive into the historical significance of pre-Civil War freedom suits and the memorial sculpture that will honor those involved with the suits. The discussion will include a viewing of the Freedom Suits Memorial video and an open forum for questions about freedom suits and the Memorial.

TUESDAY
FEB
16

Community Conversations with the Institute for Healing Justice and Equity at SLU:

Join the founders of the Institute for Healing Justice and Equity for the official launch event starting at 10:30 a.m., where they will host breakout sessions on healing justice, equity & policy, humanizing equity and community research ethics.

TUESDAY
FEB
23

26th Annual Hon. Theodore McMillian event:

Hosted by the Mound City Bar Association 4:00–5:30 p.m.

THURSDAY
FEB
25

Good Trouble in St. Louis: Seeking Social Justice in our Community program:

The Mound City Bar Association, the Hispanic Bar Association, and the Missouri Asian American Bar Association have come together to present a joint CLE opportunity. From 9 a.m.–noon.

SLU LAW
SAINT LOUIS UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

OFFICE OF INCLUSION AND DIVERSITY EDUCATION