Saints Peter and Paul Cemetery Information

Saint Louis University School of Medicine Gift Body donor cremains are buried at Saints Peter and Paul Cemetery at 7030 Gravois Avenue, St. Louis, MO 63116. The map on page two provides directions to our grave (plot 39A). A marker was placed to express gratitude on behalf of students and faculty to those who chose to make this charitable donation.

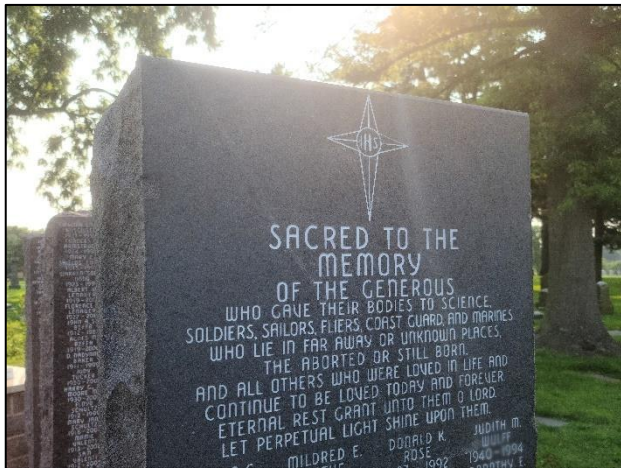

The engraving at plot 39A reads as follows.

*"Saint Louis University and its students gratefully acknowledge the charity of those buried here, who gave their remains for the advancement of medical science."
September 29, 1964*

The Catholic Cemeteries of the Archdiocese of St. Louis erected a Memorial Wall, the Sacred to the Memory of the Generous, at plot 27A where donor's names may be inscribed. For arrangements, write the Catholic Cemeteries of the Archdiocese at 6901 Mackenzie Road, St. Louis, MO 63123 or call 314-792-7737 or 314-792-7479.

Sacred to the Memory of the Generous, plot 27A

The Memorial Wall inscription reads as follows.

"Sacred to the memory of the generous who gave their bodies to science, soldiers, sailors, fliers, Coast Guard, and Marines who lie in far away or unknown places, the aborted or still born, and all others who were loved in life and continue to be loved today and forever. Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord. Let perpetual light shine upon them."

A plaque has been placed on the Caroline Mall walkway by the School of Medicine honoring its donors that reads:

"The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. . .they are at peace." Wisdom of Solomon

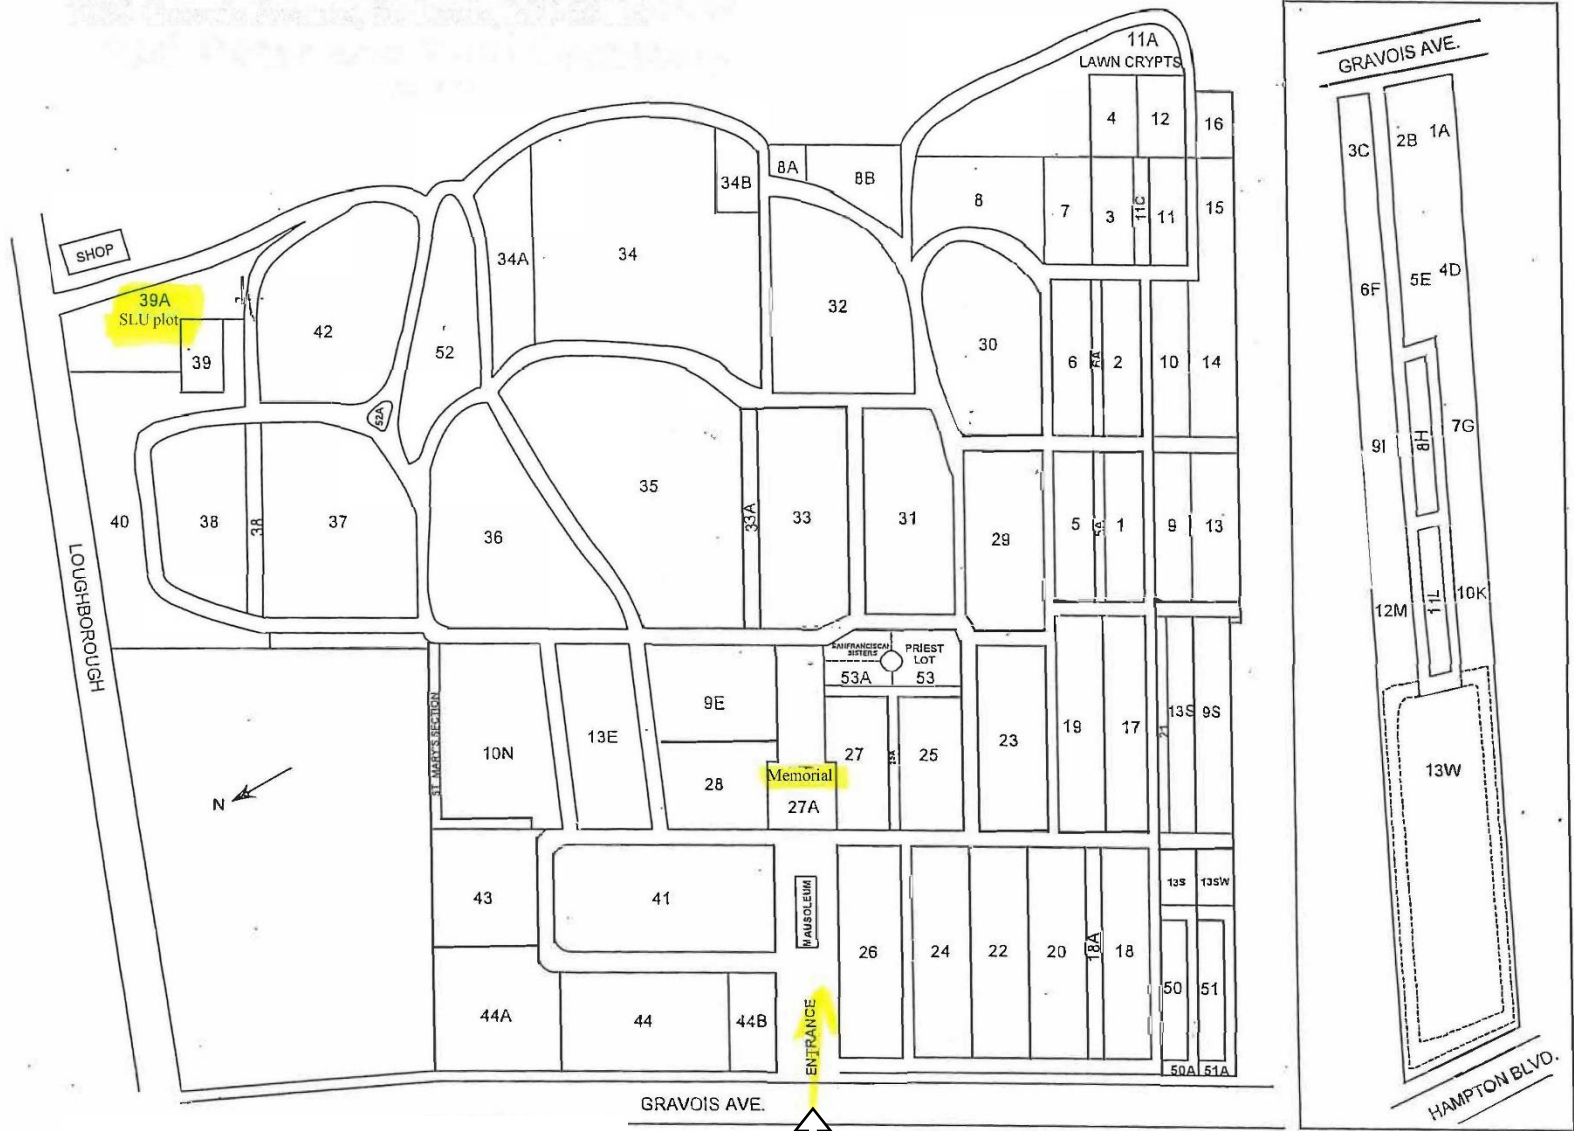

"In memory and thanksgiving, the students, faculty, and the staff of Saint Louis University express appreciation to body donors and their families who made that precious gift in order that others might learn to heal." October, 1995
