

Delta Lambda ($\Delta\Lambda$) Chapter Sigma Theta Tau ($\Sigma\Theta\tau$) International

Criteria

Sister Agnita Claire Day Master's Student Award Nominations

The Sister Agnita Claire Day Awards are designed to acknowledge those master's students or new master's graduates from Saint Louis University School of Nursing who have demonstrated excellence, academically and clinically.

Nominees for these awards must be a Chapter member, or eligible for Chapter membership. The nominee must be currently enrolled in, and have successfully completed, 50% of their required program. Upon acceptance into the Chapter, their nomination for an award will be considered with all others. Chapter members and eligible persons, who have graduated since the presentation of the previous year's awards, may be considered.

To be eligible for award consideration, the nominee must be recommended by two Chapter members, or recommended by one Chapter member and endorsed by a second Chapter member. One of these members must be a Saint Louis University School of Nursing Graduate Faculty member who has been involved in the nominee's educational/research experience.

The review of nominees will be blinded. Selection of the award recipient(s) will be based on the following criteria:

1. A cumulative GPA of 3.50 in master's study.
2. Demonstrated excellence in each of the following areas:
 - A. Synthesis of theoretical knowledge
 - B. Nursing Practice
 - C. Leadership
 - D. Nursing research (conducts or promotes utilization of nursing research in practice)
 - E. Professional, community, or University service

The Master's Award will be presented to the nominee who best meets the above criteria.
